

Banff 2024

39TH CCJA CONGRESS

39E CONGRÈS ACJP

Moving Forward Together: Exploring Pathways to Reconciliation, Healing, and Public Safety

The Canadian Criminal Justice Association in partnership with the Alberta Criminal Justice Association is pleased to host its 39th Congress on Criminal Justice in Banff Alberta. This event is expected to attract exhibitors, and leaders from across the country. This congress offers keynote presentations and a multitude of concurrent sessions and documentaries featuring the best, most promising, and emerging practices in the sector.

www.ccja.acjp.ca

6th-9th

OCTOBER 2024

The Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity
Banff, Alberta

Student Rate of $350.00!

Among the key presenters:

The Honourable Mike Ellis

Deputy Premier of Alberta and the Minister of Public Safety & Emergency Services

Justice Leonard Marchand

Chief Justice of British Columbia - the first Indigenous person to hold that role in the province's history.

Justice Johanna Price

Member of the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench since 2019. She was born in Buckingham, Québec, and is a member of the Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg First Nation

Judge Karen Crowshoe

Alberta's first female First Nations provincial court judge

Chief Keith Blake

Chief, Tsuut'ina Nation Police Service on: Overcoming Adversity and Celebrating Success- A First Nations Policing Story

Professor Irvin Waller

Internationally acclaimed professor, presenting on the Science and Secrets of Ending Violent Crime

Judge Michelle R. Brass

Originally from the Peepeekisis First Nation of the Treaty 4 Territory of Saskatchewan. Judge Brass was appointed to the Saskatchewan Provincial Court in 2018.

HOSTED BY:

Canadian Criminal
Justice Association
301 - 320 av. Parkdale Ave, Ottawa, Canada K1V 4Y9
(613) 725-3713 | ccja-acjp@rogers.com
www.ccja.acjp.ca

Alberta Criminal
Justice Association
www.acja.ca

The Criminal Justice Congress will be the meeting place for a wide range of stakeholders from Alberta and across Canada. Make plans to attend this learning and networking opportunity to discuss the most recent research outcomes, share best practices, create partnerships in various aspects of criminal justice and participate in break-out sessions, including but not limited to:

Reconciliation & Restorative Justice

Parole Board of Canada: One law, many voices: Expanding culturally responsive parole hearings

Dr. Prasanna Dharwapiya-Liyange: Understanding the Nexus of Domestic Violence: Psychological Health Ramifications, Gender Dynamics, and Child Abuse Outcomes within the Sri Lankan Context

Victoria Cowtun: Safe Space, Strong Foundations: Breaking the Cycle Through Restorative Justice

Myles Frederick McLellan: The Prospects for Indigenous, Black and Marginalized Applicants to the Proposed Miscarriage of Justice Review Commission.

Émilie Cormier and Michel Gagnon: Housing older persons with a penal background: the lived experience

Merris Centomo and Michel Gagnon: Elderly people in conflict with the law: a Canadian experience.

Pathways to Healing

Roberto Diaz: Lived experience navigating a path to Healing

Mental Health Commission of Canada, Sandra Koppert & Krystal Kelly: Less Talk More Action: Creating an action plan on mental health and criminal justice

John Winterdyk: Creating guidelines for frontline workers to support trafficked persons: A pathway towards healing and safety

David Redemske: How the built environment can influence positive inmate-patient outcomes

Andrea Monteiro: Debunking the "One Size Fits All" Policy Approach in Corrections

Dr Pamela Yates: Supporting the Reintegration of Individuals with Sexual Offences: The Core Member Needs and Strengths Tool (CM-NAST)

Jo-Ann Stacey: Ohén:ton Saionwátka'we (Section 84 – Early release of the Corrections and Conditional Release Act)

Celine Lee: Moving Forward Together - A Seat at the Table for Victims

Dr. Esmorie Miller: Gender, Race, and Youth In Urban Britain: Historic Criminological Intersections

Jo-Ann Stacey: How We Go Home

Steven Woolrich: Making the Connection - Our Built Environment and Well-Being

Stacey Perlin: Developing Intentional Pathways to Community Wellbeing

Anum Qayyum: Advancements in Utilizing Restorative Justice Practices

Catherine Brooke: Peer Life - Supporting Justice Involved People through Peer Mentorship

Dr. Isabel Scheuneman Scott: Indigenous Perspectives of Indigenizing Canada's Federal Prison System for Women

Marichelle Leclair: Moving Towards Indigenous Cultural Safety in Forensic Mental Health

Stacey Perlin: Developing Intentional Pathways to Community Wellbeing

Public Safety and Changing Paradigms

Doug Heckbert: Who is responsible for educating the public about criminal justice?

Richard Barnhorst: Achieving Restraint in Criminal Justice: Canada's Youth Criminal Justice Act

Mitko Toshev: The Impact of Marketing in Police Recruiting

Helene Love and Dawn Rault: Injunctions as an exercise of settler-colonial power

Jessica Rumboldt, Danielle Kouri, Anita Desai: Enhancing Capacity through Reconciliation, Decolonization, and Indigenization for Community-based Organizations

Marlee Jordan, Steven Deveau: Engaging People with Lived Experience in Developing Municipal Drug Policies

Tony Morelli & BeeJay Jacobson: Electronic monitoring as an alternative to incarceration

REGISTER NOW!

<https://www.ccja-acjp.ca/pub/en/banff-2024-registration/>

ABSTRACT SUBMISSIONS

<http://www.innovative4youevents.com/ccja2024.htm>

RATES

STUDENT RATE $350.00

For Members $795.00

BECOME A MEMBER: <https://www.ccja-acjp.ca/pub/en/join/>

For non-members $845.00

ACCOMMODATIONS

<https://gettaroom.b4checkin.com/banff-centre/rlp/CCJ2410>

For any additional information, please contact Sherry at sherry@innovative4you.com

HOSTED BY:

Canadian Criminal Justice Association

101 - 320 av. Parkdale Ave, Ottawa, Canada K1Y 4X9
(613) 725-3715 | ccja-acjp@rogers.com
www.ccja-acjp.ca

Alberta Criminal Justice Association

www.acja.ca

Register now!
www.ccja-acjp.ca

